DO's AND DON'Ts of the VISITING ROOM

1. Excessive displays of affection are not permitted. You may embrace and kiss at the beginning and end of each visit. Any other physical contact will be limited to hand holding only.
2. While seated, visitors and inmates must remain seated directly across from each other during visit. This includes both inside and outside visiting areas.
3. Whether visits are outside or inside, parents/inmates are responsible for the supervision of their children. Inmates may hold their minor children in an appropriate manner. Visits may be terminated due to unruly children.
4. All outside visits will take place by the tables, and there will be no moving of tables, inside or outside, without staff approval. Inmates and visitors will sit across from one another while seated at the picnic tables. You may not sit on the tabletops or straddle the benches, nor will visitors be allowed to sit on the ground. The outside area closes when the outside lights come on.
5. Visiting with anyone not sitting at your table is not allowed.
6. The visiting room restaurant does not accept cash. All food purchases from the restaurant will be made using a money transmittal from the inmate's account. ONLY POSTED AMOUNTS CAN BE USED. There will be no exceptions. Orders for food will be placed with the restaurant workers, and the money transmittal will be verified by the visiting room officer prior to receiving services. Plan ahead. Only authorized staff and inmates may enter the training kitchen area for any reason.

Conceal and Carry of Weapons

While Wisconsin has established laws which allow for the legal concealing and carrying of firearms and other weapons, it is not allowable to bring any weapon into the Institution.

Visitors who do legally possess a fire arm or other weapon under Wisconsin Conceal and Carry laws must secure those firearms and weapons inside of the trunk of their vehicle or in a locked compartment inside of their locked vehicle prior to entering the Institution. Failure to comply or attempting to bring firearms and or other weapons into the institution may result in notification of Law Enforcement and/or affect your visiting privileges.
